Babu Mangu Ram Mugowalia was the founder of the glorious Ad Dharm movement in Punjab. The Ad Dharm movement was the only movement of its kind in the Northwestern region of the country that aimed at securing a respectable place for the scheduled castes through cultural transformation and political assertion rather than seeking a separate Dall Identity on the basis of their indigenous religious strength (Ad Dharman). In one of his interviews to Prof. M. Jurewicz, Babu Mangu Ram Mugowalia said proudly “We helped give birth to a new people, a separate and independent Dalit identity in Punjab, which helped them reclaim their long lost original Ad Dharm religion and castes having a special character and meaning.”

Thus the real contribution of Babu Mangu Ram Mugowalia and the Ad Dharm movement was in creating a separate and independent Dalit identity in Punjab, which helped them reclaim their long lost original Ad Dharm religion and castes having a special character and meaning. A Bhabha of Punjab Ad Harm Mandal was inaugurated on the 129th birth anniversary of Dr. Babu Mangu Ram Mugowalia on his 129th birth anniversary.

“I have only slipped away into the next room, I am I and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we still are. Call me by my old familiar name. Speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Play, smile, think of me. All is well.” ~ Henry Scott Holland

It is with great pride and honor that the Ram Family invites all members of the community to commemorate the life and legacy of a paragon of the ideal human being. Commissioner Lahori Ram was the best at his worst and humble at his best. He served as the ultimate role model as a devoted husband, father, grand-father and as a member of society. He was a friend and confidant to all but an enemy to none. He left his footprints in the sand and we shall follow in those footprints. It is our duty to move forward in the path that he set and carry on the message that he firmly believed in: “United we stand and divided we fall.”

It is said that even God needs good people in His Company but we shall always miss your presence. Nevertheless, your soul will remain with us forever. We will always love you dearly. May God bless your soul and give us the strength to move on.

Please join the Ram family in a religious service honoring the fifth memorial ceremony of this great departed soul.
